A PUBLICATION OF DOWNTOWN MONCTON INC

DMCI OPENS ITS BOOTH TO DOWNTOWN MERCHANTS

In partnership with the City of Moncton, DMCI now shares space with vendors on Saturdays at the Moncton Market. This community kiosk is available to downtown merchants for free to help them promote their products and services to the market crowd. While the idea is not to sell wares in direct competition with the current paying vendors, this kiosk is great for offering coupons, holding draws, or promoting upcoming events and festivals. Some of you have already expressed interest in manning the booth on a Saturday, and DMCI is in the process of scheduling the kiosk for the next few months. If your business is interested on being included on the schedule, please contact Carole at DMCI at 857-2991 or via email at csaucier@downtownmoncton.nb.ca.

SPEAKING OF THE MARKET

DMCI held a series of open houses at the Moncton Market these past two Saturdays and by all accounts, it was deemed a success! DMCI would like to thank the general public for the interest and support shown. The open house aimed to help shed some light on what the new bridge between Moncton and Riverview will look like, as well as how the Vaughan Harvey and Assomption Boulevard extensions will improve the flow of traffic in the downtown area. Given the open houses were such a hit, DMCI hopes to host more of these public forums in the future as new developments come to light.

NEW PLUS MEMBER

The latest to join our downtown PLUS ranks is Route 81, 886 Main St. The downtown store offers a 15% discount to anyone who flashes a PLUS, Downtown Advantage Card. And the motorcycle-accessory store is more than just that actually. The shop has added family-oriented merchandise to its inventory and offers name brands like Sean John, Echo, Roca Wear, Phat Farm and Baby Phat. Route 81 also plans to expand its store upstairs to add even more merchandise and name-brand stuff, along with shoes, handbags, and belts. And if you haven't picked up your free Plus card yet, just drop by DMCI at 910 Main Street and let the savings begin!
