WILDCATS' CHARITY BEAR NIGHT

Saturday, January 21st, the Moncton Wildcats are teaming up with Medavie Blue Cross for the annual Charity Bear Night when the Wildcat's take on the Baie-Comeau Drakkar. Bring a new teddy bear with you to the game and when the Wildcats score their first goal of the game, fans will fill the ice surface with the gifts. The teddy bears are given to local hospitals and children's charities. If you can't make it to the game, you can still contribute by dropping off your teddy bear at the Moncton Coliseum or the Wildcats downtown office at the corner of Lutz and Main by Friday, January 20th. Be sure to put your teddy bear in a clear plastic bag to keep it dry and clean. An average of 2,000 stuffed animals have been collected in previous years. For more information call 382-5555.
