And of course various downtown restaurants and bars will be offering their own brand of Red & White cheer to help celebrate this great country of ours!

DOWNTOWN AMBASSADORS ON THE LOOSE

The question marks have hit the downtown streets for the summer. Downtown Moncton's famous Ambassadors are now out in full force and as always, this year's crew is another great one, and includes Matt Brown, Mike Robins, Crystal Deware, Sara Colford, Garrett Manzer, Astrée Goguen, Giulio Hurd and Kevin Donelle. All of our Ambassadors provide more than just a friendly smile too. Besides cleaning duty, most of the Ambassadors have artistic merit too. They can play instruments and one is even a magician! Look for Kevin to provide some lunch-time trickery. So be sure to say hi to these young folks and thank them for the great job they're doing keeping our core clean and tidy!

SUMMER CAMP

If you're still looking for summer camp ideas for your little creative ones this summer, there is still space available at Plaid and the Capitol Theatre. Both programs are geared toward the artistic souls and offer a variety of arts-oriented fun for different age groups. Plaid is run from the Central United Church and of course, the Capitol Theatre is home base for those aspiring thespians. For Plaid, call 382-2787 or visit www.plaid.ca, and for the Capitol Theatre, call 383-6203.

HOG MALL

Downtown's first H.O.G. Rally is still weeks away, but if your business is interested in participating, now is the time to think about. The Harley Davidson motorcycle rally starts Wednesday, August 17th and runs through Sunday the 21st. This event will take in thousands of the elite bikes and coincides with the annual Atlantic Seafood Festival, so attendance during that one weekend is expected to be phenomenal! As part of the rally, a HOG Mall within the Delta Beauséjour will be open to participants and the general public. If you would like your business to be part of that mall, call Dave George from Toys for Big Boys at 858-8088.

Atlantic Nationals Automobile Extravaganza

Atlantic Canada's biggest car show is just a week away. Next Friday, July 8th, Main Street will be full of chrome and class when hundreds of vintage cars fill our core. From 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 a.m., Main Street will be closed from Lutz to Botsford to Mechanic (after 6 p.m.) Streets. A free outdoor concert is also part of the celebrations.

RCMP on wheels

Two Codiac RCMP officers have started bicycle patrols in our downtown. Constables Terry Mitchell and Zane McClure will wheel along the trails of our Riverfront Park, north to St. George St., and from Vaughan Harvey Blvd east to King St. The bike patrol is based from the RCMP Storefront office at 801 Main.

Cruise to the Bay

Every Wednesday night (weather permitting) is Cruise to the Bay night in the parking lot at Highfield Square. Chrome galore fills the parking lot every week and is open and free for all ages to enjoy.
