

Out & About

June 15th, 2007

910 Main St., Suite 103
Moncton, NB E1C 1G6
T:857-2991 F:857-2908

www.downtownmoncton.com

A PUBLICATION OF DOWNTOWN MONCTON CENTRE-VILLE INC.

Downtown Moncton gears up for next week's Motorcycle Madness!

Moncton better hold on tight because the 1st Annual Motorcycle Festival is set to hit the city next week. From June 20th to June 24th, you can expect to see and hear amazing machines as motorcycle enthusiasts from far and wide take over our core for a fun filled week. "Hundreds of people have already registered and with a few hundreds more planning to register as they arrive, you should register today to beat the last minute rush" advises Event Organizer, Robert Gallant. For more info or to check out the complete festival schedule, go to www.atlanticade.ca

GMCC set to host International Symposium on Business and the Environment in Moncton

On November 27th, 2007, the Greater Moncton Chamber of Commerce will host a conference in Downtown Moncton focused on encouraging companies to discover the competitive advantages of adopting sustainable business practices. ecoRevolution will bring together key industry leaders from Canada and the United States to share proactive environmental strategies and discuss innovations that respect and protect the environment and create new business opportunities while improving their bottom line. The event will take place at Delta Beauséjour with Aliant acting as major sponsor. For more information, please contact the Chamber of Commerce at 857-2883 or go online at www.ecoRevolution.ca

8th ANNUAL DOWNTOWN WISHMAKER

MINIPUTT IN SUPPORT OF THE CHILDREN'S WISH FOUNDATION

The fundraising event benefiting Children's Wish Foundation Moncton Sub-Chapter will consist of twelve mini putt holes hosted by various downtown businesses that will create their own version of a mini putt hole. The event will take place on or near Main St. from Lutz St. to Orange Lane. The route includes stops at; Boomerangs, Kramer's, the Moncton Press Club, Pump House Brewery, Sasha's, and Lone Star. So build a team with your co-workers and friends and come out, have a great time, and raise money for a very worthwhile cause on Saturday June 16, 2007 at 12 p.m. Registration will take place at the Co-Op on Record St. Tee-offs begin at 1p.m. with a prizes & awards reception at 5 p.m. Registration fee is $10 per person with a minimum of $100 in pledges required per team. To register your team, please contact Brian Black at 382-2226 or Jillian McNally at Scotia Bank at 857-3626 ext: 4001. Space is limited!

Downtown Moncton to host many performances for World Music Day!

La Fête de la Musique will be celebrated in our core next Thursday, June 21st, as musicians will be performing in Robinson Court: at the Empress and at Café Joe Moka, in Oak Alley, at the Blue Cross Atrium and Assumption Place. City Hall Plaza will have music from 12:30 p.m. well into the late evening. "There will be free music for everyone to enjoy from classical to choir and event progressive rock", says Event Organizer, Mathilde Cramet. Bar and restaurant owners are encouraged to open their doors to musicians and offer free music to their patrons on this day. For more information on the event, please contact the Consulate General of France in the Atlantic Provinces at (506) 857-4191 or visit their site at

<http://fetedelamusique.culture.fr>

Did you know?

International Water Association

Moncton will host the IWA 2007 Specialist Conference "Moving Forward" - Wastewater Biosolids Sustainability: Technical, Managerial, and Public Synergy from June 24th to June 27th.

www.iwabiosolidsmoncton2007.ca

Bristol Appoints Louis Léger as President and Chief Executive Officer

Bristol Group's Board of Directors recently announced the appointment of Louis Léger as President and Chief Executive Officer. The current President and CEO, Rick Emberley, will move to the role of Executive Chairman of the Board and remain involved in key growth areas of the company. With offices in Atlantic Canada and Qatar, Bristol brings clients more than 130 professionals and its expertise in advertising, public relations, events, web development, business consulting and market research.