A PUBLICATION OF DOWNTOWN MONCTON CENTRE-VILLE INC.

November 11, 2005

YOU ARE INVITED!

Downtown Moncton Centre-ville Inc. is kicking off the Holidays on Wednesday, November 16th at Highfield Square. Come join us as we reveal all the great activities planned for the season. Chef Scott Savoie is taking care of the food portion of the conference, so you know this is an event you won't want to miss! There is no place like Downtown Moncton when it comes to the true spirit of the Holidays, and you'll find out why on Wednesday. The press conference gets underway at 11 a.m. in the space next to Shopper's Drug Mart in the mall (formerly Suzy Shier). DMCI hopes to see you there!

FOOD BANKS NEED YOUR HELP

Berkshire Securities Inc., 816 Main St., is still looking for businesses to help support its food drive. The 2nd annual Berkshire Fall Food Fill Up is underway until December 8th and the folks at Berkshire are making it easy to help. They will drop off and pick up boxes to your business for staff donations. Non-perishable items are desperately needed at this time of the year and cash donations are also welcome. The money and items collected will go directly to Moncton's main food stores: The Christian Food Bank, Open Hands, West-end Food Bank, Salvation Army and Mobile One. If you would like to participate, call 855-5411. And mark December 8th on your calendar for an open-house wrap-up celebration at Berkshire from noon to 1:30 p.m.

LOUNGING WITH THE DOC JUST GOT BETTER

Doc Dylan's Grill & Ale House, 841 Main St., recently renovated its upstairs lounge. Check out the renos along with its always-great menu, and keep in mind that now is the time to book your Christmas party, and Doc's certainly knows how to throw a feast!

HOLIDAY FARE

And speaking of holiday parties, the Garden House Restaurant & Catering, 886 Main St., offers a fax-ready menu to suit all your catering needs. You can also enter to win a chance at a gift certificate towards your next catering from the great restaurant. Call John or Anita at 854-1306 to find out more.

BOOK YOUR HOLIDAY PARTY DOWNTOWN - Downtown Moncton is the perfect backdrop for the Holidays. Our award-winning lights, great contests, unique retailers, family fun and overall warmth are what set our core apart during the hustle and bustle of the season. So what better place to celebrate with family, friends and staff, then an evening out in the Heart of our City! For a complete listing of all the restaurants, bars, eateries, cafés, lounges and clubs downtown, call DMCI for your copy of the Explore Guide or visit www.downtownmoncton.com.

Turkeys for kids!

FitResponse will shape up your kids for a turkey on Saturdays, December 3rd and the 10th at the Moncton Sportsdome! The turkey food drive is for the Moncton Food Bank. All you have to do is bring a turkey in exchange for a 3-hour fitness, craft and nutrition camp for kids ages 2 to teens. The two Saturday sessions will run from 9 a.m. to noon. To RSVP, call 382-7529 or by email at info@fitresponse.ca.

Still Golfing...

Well, maybe not, but the benefits from the 2005 Young Professionals Golf Tournament held at Fox Creek in September are still lingering. More than $16,000 was raised for Junior Achievement Southeastern NB. Hats off to all who made this such a success. Pictured from left are Rene Couture (RBC Inv.), David Savoie (Acadian Construction), Ryan Dillon (RBC Ins.), Nick Donald (program manager Jr. Achievers), tourney chair Darrin Quigley (RBC Ins.), and Veronique Roussel (Enterprise South East).
