Colliers International moves into former Burger King location on Main Street

The former Burger King at 696 Main Street has a new tenant! Colliers International, a commercial real estate company, has moved in to the location that was vacant since early 2007.

The former Colliers International location was at 735 Main Street.

All the best to Colliers International in their new location!

The 2009 edition of the Advantage Card is ALMOST HERE!

We expect to get the cards in the next week.

Check the Out and About to know when they will be available to pick up at our offices at 910 Main Street, suite 103.

This year, 42 merchants will be participating in the program, including 17 new businesses, including some from the St. George Street Area.

* Until we get the 2009 cards, we strongly encourage downtown merchants to continue accepting the 2008 card.*

For more information on the 2009 Advantage Card and how you and your employees can take advantage of these great rebates, please contact Sophie Cormier-Lalonde, DMCI Communications Coordinator at 857-2991.

New Downtown Italian Restaurant enjoying early success

Portofino Ristorante Italiano located at 40 Weldon Street, in the former Maverick's location, has been open since November.

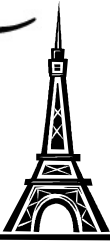

Chef and owner, Tony Scichilone, a native of Sicily, makes everything from scratch.
