HAPPY BIRTHDAY CANADA!

Come celebrate Canada Day in downtown Moncton where Natalie MacMaster and Donnell Leahy will headline the biggest FREE party around. The Whoa Canada! concert stage, located under the pedway in front of Moncton City Hall at 655 Main Street, will light up on July 1 at 3 p.m. Additional featured performers include: Africo, Kevin McIntyrer, Mel Keith and the Strombachs, The Once and Gabelle. After the musical shows, the attention will turn to the river, when the traditional Canada Day Fireworks Display will fill the skies. After the fireworks, the Oxygen Complex will be hosting a 19+ after-party on Westmorland Street with live outdoor entertainment. For more information call the info line at 506-853-3516 or visit www.moncton.ca/canadaday

LET'S VOTE!

The Frye Festival needs your help to win $25,000 to create a bronze life-sized sculpture of Northrop Frye sitting on a park bench reading a book outside the Moncton Public Library. As part of a national competition presented by Pepsi Canada, the Festival has submitted a proposal to win the funds to create an enduring reminder of our community's most famous son. Beginning on Thursday, July 1st and running until Tuesday, August 31, 2010, everyone is invited to visit www.refresheverything.ca daily and vote for "Feed your imagination" in the Arts and Culture section. The winner will be chosen exclusively on the number of votes it receives, so vote daily! If the Festival is successful in winning the money, they will mount a national competition to find a sculptor to create the art. The goal will be to have Margaret Atwood unveil the sculpture during the 2011 Frye Festival (April 25-May 1, 2011). Photo: Mayor George LeBlanc & Northrop Frye at the site of the future public art display.
