A PUBLICATION OF DOWNTOWN MONCTON CENTRE-VILLE INC.

MARC CHOUNARD TO RECEIVE ORDER OF CANADA!

DMCI congratulates Capitol Theatre General manager Marc Chouinard. Marc will soon be awarded the Order of Canada for a lifetime of outstanding achievement, dedication to community and service to the nation. Marc Chouinard has been specifically cited for his contributions to the development of music, the arts and Acadian culture, and for promoting French culture. Bravo Marc!

*** THE 2011 ADVANTAGE CARD IS CHANGING! ***

DMCI has decided to revamp its Advantage card by making it available to the general population!

Here is a wonderful way to bring more people downtown! Once the cards are ready, we will invite you to come pick up your card at our office. They will also be available at participating merchants. If you are a downtown merchant and would like to join the 2011 Advantage card program, please let us know and we will gladly send you the information. The cards will be ready at the end of February. Until then, we encourage participating merchants to continue to honor the 2010 cards.

PLANMONCTON – THE SHAPE OF THINGS TO COME

What will YOUR Moncton look like in 10, 20, even 50 years from now? Your city's municipal development plan is due for review, and we need your feedback and ideas. So, what is PlanMoncton? It's the blueprint for what Moncton will look like in the future. Some of the themes addressed in the document include:

- Infrastructure (streets, sewers, etc.)
- Green space (parks, trails, etc.)
- Culture (public art, heritage, etc.)
- Industrial and residential areas
- Environment (tree protection, active transportation, etc.)

Stay tuned for a schedule of public events to be held soon.
