MONCTON SUMMER CONCERTS 2011

The City of Moncton is calling artists to take part in its annual Summer Cultural Series, which takes place every July and August. Local talents of all ages and levels are invited to submit their application to become a part of the series of outdoor concerts. All performing art forms will be considered, from music to dance, to theatre, to live visual arts performances, or a combination of these. Performing art schools, academies and summer camps that offer performing arts programming are also encouraged to apply. Fill out the online application on the City of Moncton website, moncton.ca (City activities box on home page). For more information: culture@moncton.ca or 506-853-3587.
